Re : Discontinuance of PCSO E-Lotto Project

Gentlemen:

We write further to our disclosure dated 19 June 2024 through which we advised the Exchange of our receipt of a Notice of Award from the Philippine Charity Sweepstakes Office (PCSO) in connection with its bidding for the procurement of its Web-Based Application Platform which was intended to be used for its E-Lotto Project.

Subsequent to the issuance of the Notice of Award, as an offshoot of the controversies that arose involving other online gaming variants like e-Sabong and the Philippine Offshore Gaming Operations (or "POGO"), the national government eventually adopted a firm policy against the continuation of the licensing of all forms of online betting platforms. With this reversal in policy, the implementation of PCSO's E-Lotto was placed on a prolonged suspended animation. Because of this development, in a meeting held today, the Company's Board of Directors, recognizing that the national government's policy will no longer be retracted, ordered as follows: (i) that the Corporation's involvement in E-Lotto be already unwound, and (ii) that the Company refocus its efforts and resources on other available and more feasible opportunities.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Very truly yours,

MICHELLE ANGELI T. HERNANDEZ
